DEDICATION

To the memory of Abram Venable Martin—gentleman, scholar and professor, we dedicate this volume with reverent esteem. He served our Alma Mater faithfully and well, and for his calm courage, his quiet dignity, his devotion to scholarship, his quaint courtesies and his droll humor he will long be remembered.

*"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world 'This was a man'!"*

ABRAM VENABLE MARTIN—1868-1935

FOREWORD AND INTRODUCTION

In presenting this 1936 PAC SAC we hope that within its pages, in the days that are to come, you will find poignant reminders of happy years. You may laugh at some of them and you may wonder at others, but it is our hope that each of you will find here the source of some inescapable memories. We have tried to capture at least the spirit of our life here and set it down for the years ahead. The years themselves will give answer as to our success.

Our artistic devices are Roman; for Rome, despite her sterile homage to Law, gave us great traditions of glory and grandeur, and the names and lives of great men. Their spirit of personal honor and courage, their devotion to a just cause, and the simplicity of their allegiances are worth some thought in this frenzied life of today.

For our literary theme we have chosen that poet who wrote of every man and every situation—Shakespeare. We have tried to catch some of the deeper significances of college days in our selections for the different departments, and if in the words of the poet you catch deeper meaning, and a more personal one, our task is not without its reward.

ALMA MATER

*'Mong Piedmont hills of old S. C.
There stands a college called P. C.
She's dear to me, this old P. C.
Where every day is happy.*

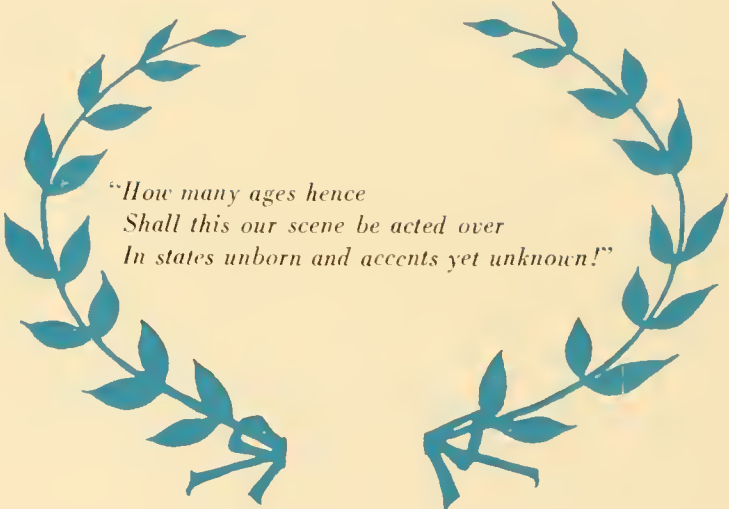

*All honor to thy learned walls,
Thy campus and historic halls,
We'll sing thy praise through all our days,
Our well loved Alma Mater.*

CHORUS

*P. C., P. C., how dear thou art to me,
P. C., P. C., we'll e'er be true to thee,
P. C., P. C., we'll e'er sing thy praise,
We'll sing thy praise through all our days,
All hail to thee.*

Shall this our scene be acted over
In states unborn and accents yet unknown!”*

PRESIDENT JACOBS' MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF '36

Through my privilege of closer association with the students of Presbyterian College I have been convinced that on our campus is a unique spirit, a loftiness of purpose, a standard of culture and an excellency of intellectuality of which we can all be very proud. It is stimulating to note the constructive effect of character as it manifests itself in student life. I am proud of the citizens who make up our campus unit. The culture of the homes from which they come is reflected in their commendable qualities of leadership and I predict for the graduates of Presbyterian College a brilliant future in which most of them will make a deep impress upon our social order. It is my hope that the spirit of Presbyterian College will continue to permeate the life of each of our graduates as it does the lives of our students. You have my deepest interest and best wishes for success and happiness.

COACHING STAFF

We, the athletic staff of the 1936 Pac Sac, take great pleasure in introducing the Presbyterian College coaching staff.

At the head of the roster is Walter A. Johnson, Dean of Dixie football, who this year completes his 20th year as mentor and guardian angel of P. C. athletic teams. Famed throughout the south for the fighting qualities of his teams, Walter Johnson, known to P. C. men everywhere as "Coach", has combined the duties of head football coach, boxing coach, and director of athletics and has still found time to be a prince of a good fellow.

Next in line is Lonnie McMillian, the man who has drawn material from a student body of 300 and won 1 of 12 state track meets, and who, in addition, has molded the basketball destinies of the college.

Then come Hugh Eichelberger, assistant football coach, and Chick Galloway, baseball coach de luxe. Eichelberger, an all-state tackle for two years, handles the line coaching. Galloway, the latest addition to the coaching quartet, was voted world's greatest short stop in 1925, while playing for the Philadelphia Athletics.

Fighting the hardest schedule ever attempted by a Presbyterian athletic team, the P. C. varsity opened one of the leanest football seasons in years against the powerful Clemson Bengals on September 21. Early in the game the Tiger showed his claws, and before the last whistle had sounded the score stood Clemson 25, P. C. 6. The Hose touchdown was made by Sophomore Ralph Waldrep, who snatched a Clemson fumble before it touched the ground and scurried for the tally.

On the following Saturday, Georgia Tech's Ramblin' Wreck unleashed a lateral passing attack that left the Calvinist visitors in a fog. When the mist had cleared, the score board attributed 33 points to Tech. The P. C.

points were conspicuous by their absence. The plunging and passing of Frank Holliday and the kicking of Rex Wilbanks were especially outstanding in the Hose backfield.

Still smarting under the sting of the defeat by Tech, the Presbyterians journeyed over to Greenville the following week and ran into more stormy weather. Although Furman should have won by no more than two touchdowns over a P. C. team that showed good form only spasmodically, the Purple Hurricane ran up a 23 to 0 score before the end of the game. The principal redeeming feature for the Calvinists was the punting of J. B. Jacobs and the defensive work of Holliday.

Playing beneath the brilliant new floodlights of Johnson Field, Coach Walter A. Johnson's 20th team rolled up 20 points to commemorate two decades of service, the largest home-coming celebration ever held, and a 20 to 6 victory over a scrappy Newberry aggregation. The Hose struck early in the first quarter and, led by the running of Bill Thompson and the punting of Wilbanks and Jacobs, never let up. It seemed that the P. C. attack was at last beginning to function smoothly.

But, in the fifth game of the season without an off-Saturday, a powerful Mercer Bear rose on his haunches in the last quarter and smashed through to victory, the final score being 14 to 7. The spectacular running of Mercer's Bloodworth contributed largely to the Baptists' rally, the agile quarterback scampering nearly 50 yards for the final score. The Presbyterian tally was made in the second period and resulted from an intercepted pass by Jacobs near mid-field. The Blues played heads-up ball in the first half but the second was a nightmare.

Costly blocked punts and the magnificent running of the great Walt Kitchin, Wake Forest back, led the Demon Deacons to an 18 to 0 victory over the Presbyterians in the next of the discouraging battles. When the game ended P. C. held the ball on the 1-yard line. Higbe, Collings, and Forehand were out of the line-up because of injuries.

Then once again the power of the Blue offense was felt as P. C., although playing sluggishly throughout, rang up 13 points to Erskine's none in a Friday game at York. Correll and Prather in the line and Wilbanks in the back-field carried the brunt of the Calvinist offense and defense. Whitesides, Weir, and Gettys shone in the line-up of the Flying Fleet.

Leading 6 to 0 at the half and making a strong bid to break up Wofford's homecoming, the Blues went to sleep in the second period and the Terriers smashed over a touchdown and extra point to clinch the game with a one-point margin. The P. C. score came in the first ten minutes of the first quarter. Correll recovered a fumble about the 20-yard line and Holiday passed to Thompson for the marker. The Wofford score was also made on a pass, and the extra point from placement by Bru Anderson.

In the last game of the season, played at Charleston against Citadel, a driving Cadet team smashed through the mist of a Thanksgiving Day rain to lash out an 18 to 7 victory over a stalwart Blue team whose chief star was scrappy Glenn Beeman. The Hose touchdown was made on fourth down by a line plunge after a 40-yard pass, Holliday to Joe Bradley, had put the ball in scoring territory. Citadel's final tally was made as the second hand of the electric clock dragged around towards the final whistle.

Thus ended the 1935 season, the season marked by the toughest schedule ever undertaken by any Calvinist team in the history of P. C. athletics.

TENNIS TEAM

Facing a twelve-game schedule with a varsity team forming around a nucleus of three veterans, the 1936 tennis team is at the present time somewhat of an enigma.

Led by Captain Alan Levi, Charlotte, and strengthened by the steady Francis Gregg and Marion Parham, prospects for the netmen seem much brighter than last year. The more or less unknown ability of the men who will fill the gaps left by graduation of several regulars makes it impossible to make any definite prediction.

Parham and Levi are expected to compose one doubles team, while Gregg and one of the new men will make up the second doubles pair. Of the more promising aspirants for the varsity, Creech, Johnston, Woodward, Estes, Patton, and Grey seem to have the upper hand. All have proved their skill, either by service on the freshman or varsity teams as regular or substitute players, or in the yearly intramural tournaments.

The expected completion before the end of the season of all of the new tennis courts now under construction will add much interest to the game. Men who heretofore have had little opportunity to practice because of lack of court space will now be adequately supplied with such facilities. Before the end of the year it is believed that P. C. will be equipped with courts as fine and as numerous as those of any college of the size in the south.

Adams.
CAPTAIN

Riding disastrouly high on the wave of a victory jinx, Presbyterian's 1936 basketball team rolled through a difficult season, winning a game here and there but never rising to the heights of which it was evidently capable.

In the first home game of the season, the Hose took to the warpath to scalp Newberry's Indians by a 50 to 30 score. Never again during the entire schedule was the team to ring up the points as it did on this initial program. Always it seemed that victory was just above the hoops, but usually the needed spurt was lacking and the Blues trailed by narrow margins at the last whistle.

Throughout the season, diminutive Alan Levi, scoring 151 points, was the spark-plug of the P. C. offense. The starting team was usually composed of Forehand, center; Levi and Wyatt, forwards; and Adams and Bradley, guards. The work of the Waldrep brothers and of Cleckler and Cavin added materially to the strength of the quintet

Perhaps the most disappointing game of the season was the tilt with Carolina, played in the last week of the season. The Hose trailed five points at the half, but came back with a determined attack that netted point after point. Then, in the closing minutes of the game, the Gamecocks staged a counter attack that netted a one-point victory and cast consternation into the ranks of Hose supporters.

But win, lose, or draw the 1936 Blue Stockings proved that they could take defeat as well as victory; that they could keep on fighting no matter what the score, no matter what the result might be.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

One of the best freshmen basketball teams P. C. has seen in years swept through a difficult season, meeting team after team, and lost only one state game.

The Baby Hose, with an undefeated state season practically assured, allowed over-confidence and a determined Newberry first year outfit to trip them on the home stretch and hand them their first state defeat of the year in the last game of the season.

The freshmen met and trounced Clemson, Furman, Wofford, University of Georgia, and numerous high school and mill teams. The trough of despair was reached when Georgia Military College triumphed over the quintet twice, to complete the three defeats that marred the entire season.

Outstanding work was done by Holden, Pugh, Batchelor, Christian, Kimbo, and Holcombe. With added experience, the 1936 freshmen will form a strong basis for the 1937 varsity.

After starting late in the season last year and climbing by leaps and bounds to third place in the state at the end of the season, Coach Chick Galloway's scintillating baseball outfit marked itself as one of the strongest contenders in the state for championship honors in 1936.

Only two men were lost by graduation, and several promising candidates are coming up from the ranks of the freshmen. Coach Galloway, former star of the Philadelphia Athletics and voted world's greatest short-stop several years ago, will open the season with an experienced nine, and in his second year as baseball mentor, is to be relied upon to turn out a winning team.

Led by Captain Robbie Higbe, the aggregation will be made up of alert, capable ball players. Frank Holliday and John Suggs will do most of the mound duty. Behind the plate will be Bird, Forehand, or Plowden. An infield made up of men selected from Higbe, Horne, Harvin, Wyatt, Blackwell, and Hughes will assure the pitcher of fine support. The outfield jobs will go to Evans, Coe, Millsap, Weldon, McSween, and, when he is not on the mound, Suggs.

Since the South Carolina college league was largely the result of the efforts of P. C.'s Walter Johnson, it is peculiarly fitting that P. C. should lead the way to a revival of interest in what was once the outstanding college sport. An improved playing field, new bleachers, a board fence around the field—all these have been the result of the untiring efforts of Athletic Director Walter Johnson to restore baseball to its rightful place in the college sporting world of the state.

Although in the past P. C. has never been able to become a strong, year by year contender for state honors in the baseball league, the Blue Hose have always put out a fighting, scrapping team. With the signing last year of Chick Galloway as full-time coach, the game took on new emphasis, new life.

Commander

During the early part of the season, the outfit lost games as it learned the methods of the new coach. Then things began to happen. The last half of the season was a whirlwind of action with Hose batters knocking pitcher after pitcher out of the box, scooping up hot grounders, staging last-minute rallies to win game after game.

Starting the season with a practically intact team, the P. C. baseball machine will be very difficult to stop short of a state championship. This year it seems certain that the Blues will climb high along the ladder of baseball supremacy.

P. C., famous throughout the state for its great track teams, will send out its 1936 outfit minus some of its record-topping runners of last year and notably deficient in the field events, but boasting, nevertheless, one of the outstanding aggregations of South Carolina colleges.

Always stronger in the cinder events than in the weights and jumps, this year's team will have to depend for most of its points upon several veterans of last year. To begin with the dashes, it seems at present as though Joe Bradley will do even better than his time of 9.8 seconds on the hundred and will turn in creditable work in the 220-yard dash. Should Bill Thompson be shifted to the century, he may be depended upon for snappy sprinting.

Charles

Adams

A trio of middle-distance men composed of Joe Commander, Jimmy Winget, and Roy Forehand will handle the competition in the 140 and 320 stretches. Commander set a new state freshman record in the quarter mile last year, while Winget and Forehand are experienced runners.

For the longer run, the mile, Phil Adams, veteran letterman, will take the points. Colin Hudson, suffering for the past year with a leg injury, will be the Blue's chief threat in the two mile, running the laps in excellent time. Preston Charles and George McInnis have developed steadily for the past two seasons and are now ready to give Hudson even more support than they have done in the past. These three may always be counted upon for points.

The high hurdles will probably be taken care of by Frank Waldrep, but no aspirant has as yet been found who can run the 220-yard low hurdles in acceptable time. Thompson was outstanding last year as a low hurdler, yet it is feared that his services will be needed for other events.

Then we turn to the field events for a somewhat darker picture. Only in the broad jump will P. C. be adequately supported. Bill Thompson, Allen Guerard, and Joe Hollis will jump along with the best in the south. For the high jump, Rex Wilbanks and J. B. Jacobs will be looked to for needed points. Malcolm Hemphill and Walter Beeman will float through the air on the pole vault, while Walt Williams heaves the weights.

To round out the program, Coach McMillian's 1936 relay team will be out to return the relay title to P. C. Ever since the inauguration of fine track teams at P. C., record-smashing mile relay teams have been as traditional as the famed P. C. spirit. Supporters have watched state meets captured by other schools and then forgotten defeat in the thrill of watching a Blue Hose anchor man gallop down the home stretch, far in the lead, to carry on the tradition of winning relay teams.

The 1936 quartet will be taken from Bradley, Thompson, Winget, Commander, and Forehand. All can step the 410 in low time. It seems that the relay title will return before the end of the season. Whether or not the state track title will return is problematical.

Commander Hemphill Williams Winget

The 1936 P A C • S A C

FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM

Whether or not Coach Lonnie McMillian will be able to develop his 1936 freshmen track squad into a unit that will be strong enough to make a forceful bid for first honors in the state meet is still uncertain. The first year outfit boasts several excellent performers, perhaps one or two who will shatter existing freshmen state records, but the possibility of a well-rounded team is an uncertain quantity.

For the dashes, the Sox will have Dennard, Ritch, and Reynolds. Atkinson, rangy Florida athlete, is expected to handle the 110-yard dash. The mile run will list Bonner and Chapman as its chief entries. Davis and Reynolds are expected to run the hurdles, while the relay will come from Dennard, Ritch, Reynolds, and Atkinson, in all probability.

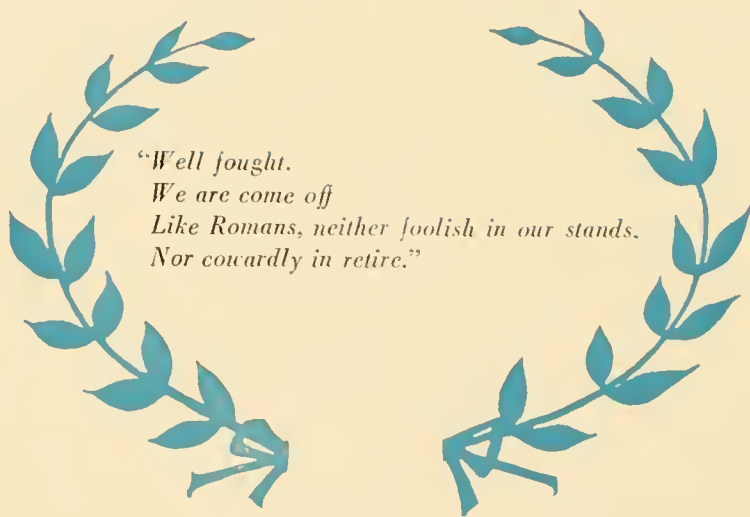

In the field events, the P. C. scoring will be boosted by the points track fans expect Dennard to contribute in the broad jump. Holden will do the high jumping. McSween the vaulting, and Evans and Boswell the weight work.

With the usual P. C. strength in the track events, followers of the cinder sport can look for a freshmen team that will send up to next year's varsity valuable performers in the dashes and distance runs and sturdy athletes in the weight and jumps.

RETROSPECT

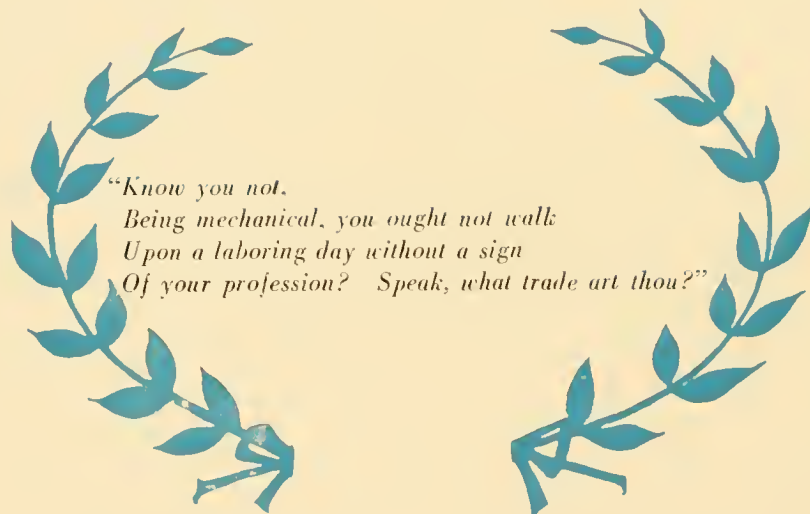

REUNION

HELEN F. BLACKSHEAR

*Go back? To what reunion would I go
When I have with me all that I hold dear
Of college days? The slow growth of each year
Is part of me; the blue, soft glow
Of lamps on misty nights, the rich, low
Chords of benediction—they are near Me often. And my friends? I still can hear
Their voices, feel their hands, and see them. Oh,
How could you think to see them now would bring
Them closer, or can ever bring again
Those long, long talks, that trembling joy in spring,
The bitter hurt, the tramping in the rain,
World-saving visions? None of these remain.
There's no reunion but remembering.
 *"If we do meet again, why, we shall smile;
 If not, why then, this parting was well made."

ADVERTISEMENTS

*"Know you not,
Being mechanical, you ought not walk
Upon a laboring day without a sign
Of your profession? Speak, what trade art thou?"*

Appreciation

We take this opportunity to express our grateful appreciation to those merchants and business men who have made possible this volume of the PaC SaC.

And—we take this opportunity to request that the college administration and the students of P. C. give our advertisers the same kind consideration that they have given us. You'll be doing your little bit to make the burden of next year's staff easier.
